[View Regulation]

[ASSENTED TO 24 NOVEMBER, 1998]
[DATE OF COMMENCEMENT: 21 JANUARY, 1999]

(English text signed by the President)

as amended by

Prevention of Organised Crime Amendment Act, No. 24 of 1999

Prevention of Organised Crime Second Amendment Act, No. 38 of 1999

Financial Intelligence Centre Act, No. 38 of 2001

ACT

To introduce measures to combat organised crime, money laundering and criminal gang activities; to prohibit certain activities relating to racketeering activities; to provide for the prohibition of money laundering and for an obligation to report certain information; to criminalise certain activities associated with gangs; to provide for the recovery of the proceeds of unlawful activity; for the civil forfeiture of criminal assets that have been used to commit an offence or assets that are the proceeds of unlawful activity; to provide for the establishment of a Criminal Assets Recovery Account; to amend the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act, 1992; to amend the International Co-operation in Criminal Matters Act, 1996; to repeal the Proceeds of Crime Act, 1996; to incorporate the provisions contained in the Proceeds of Crime Act, 1996; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

Preamble.—WHEREAS the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), enshrines the rights of all people in the Republic and affirms the democratic values of human dignity, equality and freedom;

AND WHEREAS the Constitution places a duty on the State to respect, protect, promote and fulfil the rights in the Bill of Rights;

AND WHEREAS there is a rapid growth of organised crime, money laundering and criminal gang activities nationally and internationally and since organised crime has internationally been identified as an international security threat;

AND WHEREAS organised crime, money laundering and criminal gang activities infringe on the rights of the people as enshrined in the Bill of Rights;

AND WHEREAS it is the right of every person to be protected from fear, intimidation and physical harm caused by the criminal activities of violent gangs and individuals;

AND WHEREAS organised crime, money laundering and criminal gang activities, both individually and collectively, present a danger to public order and safety and economic stability, and have the potential to inflict social damage;

AND WHEREAS the South African common law and statutory law fail to deal effectively with organised crime, money laundering and criminal gang activities, and also fail to keep pace with international measures aimed at dealing effectively with organised crime, money laundering and criminal gang activities;

AND BEARING IN MIND that it is usually very difficult to prove the direct involvement of organised crime leaders in particular cases, because they do not perform the actual criminal activities themselves, it is necessary to criminalise the management of, and related conduct in connection with enterprises which are involved in a pattern of racketeering activity;

AND WHEREAS no person convicted of an offence should benefit from the fruits of that or any related offence, whether such offence took place before or after the commencement of this Act, legislation is necessary to provide for a civil remedy for the restraint and seizure, and confiscation of property which forms the benefits derived from such offence;

AND WHEREAS no person should benefit from the fruits of unlawful activities, nor is any person entitled to use property for the commission of an offence, whether such activities or offence took place before or after the commencement of this Act, legislation is necessary to provide for a civil remedy for the preservation and seizure, and forfeiture of property which is derived from unlawful activities or is concerned in the commission or suspected commission of an offence;

AND WHEREAS there is a need to devote such forfeited assets and proceeds to the combating of organised crime and money laundering;

AND WHEREAS the pervasive presence of criminal gangs in many communities is harmful to the well being of those communities, it is necessary to criminalise participation in or promotion of criminal gang activities:

[Preamble amended by s. 13 of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

(3) If at the particular time referred to in subsection (2) the recipient holds—

- (a) the property, other than cash, which he or she received, the value concerned shall be the value of the property at the particular time; or
- (b) property which directly or indirectly represents in his or her hands the property which he or she received, the value concerned shall be the value of the property, in so far as it represents the property which he or she received, at the relevant time.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 15 of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

16. Gifts.—(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a defendant shall be deemed to have made a gift if he or she has transferred any property to any other person directly or indirectly for a consideration the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration supplied by the defendant.

(2) For the purposes of section 20 (2) the gift which a defendant is deemed to have made shall consist of that share in the property transferred by the defendant which is equal to the difference between the value of that property as a whole and the consideration received by the defendant in return.

17. Conclusion of proceedings against defendant.—For the purposes of this Chapter, the proceedings contemplated in terms of this Chapter against a defendant shall be concluded when—

- (a) the defendant is acquitted or found not guilty of an offence;
- (b) subject to section 18 (2), the court convicting the defendant of an offence, sentences the defendant without making a confiscation order against him or her;
- (c) the conviction in respect of an offence is set aside on review or appeal; or

PART 2

Confiscation Orders

18. Confiscation orders.—(1) Whenever a defendant is convicted of an offence the court convicting the defendant may, on the application of the public prosecutor, enquire into any benefit which the defendant may have derived from—

- (a) that offence;
- (b) any other offence of which the defendant has been convicted at the same trial; and
- (c) any criminal activity which the court finds to be sufficiently related to those offences, and, if the court finds that the defendant has so benefited, the court may, in addition to any punishment which it may impose in respect of the offence, make an order against the defendant for the payment to the State of any amount it considers appropriate and the court may make any further orders as it may deem fit to ensure the effectiveness and fairness of that order.

(2) The amount which a court may order the defendant to pay to the State under subsection (1)—

- (a) shall not exceed the value of the defendant's proceeds of the offences or related criminal activities referred to in that subsection, as determined by the court in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter; or
- (b) if the court is satisfied that the amount which might be realised as contemplated in section 20 (1) is less than the value referred to in paragraph (a), shall not exceed an amount which in the opinion of the court might be so realised.

(3) A court convicting a defendant may, when passing sentence, indicate that it will hold an enquiry contemplated in subsection (1) at a later stage if—

- (a) it is satisfied that such enquiry will unreasonably delay the proceedings in sentencing the defendant; or
- (b) the public prosecutor applies to the court to first sentence the defendant and the court is satisfied that it is reasonable and justifiable to do so in the circumstances.

(4) If the judicial officer who convicted the defendant is absent or for any other reason not available, any judicial officer of the same court may consider an application referred to in subsection (1) and hold an enquiry referred to in that subsection and he or she may in such proceedings take such steps as the judicial officer who is absent or not available could lawfully have taken.

(5) No application referred to in subsection (1) shall be made without the written authority of the National Director.

(6) A court before which proceedings under this section are pending, may—

- (a) in considering an application under subsection (1)—
 - (i) refer to the evidence and proceedings at the trial;
 - (ii) hear such further oral evidence as the court may deem fit;
 - (iii) direct the public prosecutor to tender to the court a statement referred to in section 21 (1) (a); and
 - (iv) direct a defendant to tender to the court a statement referred to in subsection (3) (a) of that section;
- (b) subject to subsection (1) (b) or (3) (b) of section 21, adjourn such proceedings to any day on such conditions not inconsistent with a provision of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), as the court may deem fit.

19. Value of proceeds of unlawful activities.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the value of a defendant's proceeds of unlawful activities shall be the sum of the values of the property, services, advantages, benefits or rewards received, retained or derived by him or her at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, in connection with the unlawful activity carried on by him or her or any other person.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 16 (a) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(2) In determining the value of a defendant's proceeds of unlawful activities the court shall—

- (a) where it has made a declaration of forfeiture or where a declaration of forfeiture has previously been made in respect of property which is proved to the satisfaction of the court—
 - (i) to have been the property which the defendant received in connection with the criminal activity carried on by him or her or any other person; or
 - (ii) to have been property which directly or indirectly represented in the defendant's hands the property which he or she received in that connection, leave the property out of account;
- (b) where a confiscation order has previously been made against the defendant leave out of account those proceeds of unlawful activities which are proved to the satisfaction of the court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that confiscation order.

20. Amounts which might be realised.—(1) For the purposes of section 18 (2) (b) or 21 (3) (a), the amount which might be realised at the time of the making of a confiscation order against a defendant shall be the amount equal to the sum of—

- (a) the values at that time of all realisable property held by the defendant; and
- (b) the values at that time of all affected gifts made by the defendant, less the sum of all obligations, if any, of the defendant having priority and which the court may recognise for this purpose.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 17 (a) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15 (1) but subject to the provisions of section 16 (2), the value of an affected gift at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order shall be—

- (a) the value of the affected gift at the time when the recipient received it, as adjusted to take into account subsequent fluctuations in the value of money; or
- (b) where subsection (3) applies, the value mentioned in that subsection, whichever is the greater value.

(3) If at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order the recipient holds—

- (a) the property, other than cash, which he or she received, the value concerned shall be the value of the property at that time; or
- (b) the property which directly or indirectly represents in his or her hands the property which he or she received, the value concerned shall be the value of the property, in so far as it represents the property which he or she received, at the time.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (1), an obligation has priority at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order—

- (a) if it is an obligation of the defendant, where he or she has been convicted by a court of any offence—
 - (i) to pay a fine imposed before that time by the court; or
 - (ii) to pay any other amount under any resultant order made before that time by the court;
- (b) if it is an obligation which—
 - (i) if the estate of the defendant had at that time been sequestrated; or
 - (ii) where the defendant is a company or other juristic person, if such company or juristic person is at that time being wound up, would be payable in pursuance of any secured or preferent claim against the insolvent estate or against such company or juristic person, as the case may be.

(5) A court shall not determine the amounts which might be realised as contemplated in subsection (1) unless it has afforded all persons holding any interest in the property concerned an opportunity to make representations to it in connection with the realisation of that property.

21. Statements relating to proceeds of unlawful activities.—(1) (a) The public prosecutor may or, if so directed by the court, shall tender to the court a statement in writing under oath or affirmation by him or her or any other person in connection with any matter which is being enquired into by the court under section 18 (1), or which relates to the determination of the value of a defendant's proceeds of unlawful activities.

(b) A copy of such statement shall be served on the defendant at least 14 days before the date on which that statement is to be tendered to the court.

(2) (a) The defendant may dispute the correctness of any allegation contained in a statement referred to in subsection (1) (a), and if the defendant does so dispute the correctness of any such allegation, he or she shall state the grounds on which he or she relies.

(b) In so far as the defendant does not dispute the correctness of any allegation contained in such statement, that allegation shall be deemed to be conclusive proof of the matter to which it relates.

(3) (a) A defendant may or, if so directed by the court, shall tender to the court a statement in writing under oath or affirmation by him or her or by any other person in connection with any matter which relates to the determination of the amount which might be realised as contemplated in section 20 (1).

(b) A copy of such statement shall be served on the public prosecutor at least 14 days before the date on which that statement is to be tendered to the court.

(4) (a) The public prosecutor may admit the correctness of any allegation contained in a statement referred to in subsection (3) (a).

(b) In so far as the public prosecutor admits the correctness of any allegation contained in such statement, that allegation shall be deemed to be conclusive proof of the matter to which it relates.

22. Evidence relating to proceeds of unlawful activities.—(1) For the purposes of determining whether a defendant has derived a benefit in an enquiry under section 18 (1), if it is found that the defendant did not at the fixed date, or since the beginning of a period of seven years before the fixed date, have legitimate sources of income sufficient to justify the interests in any property that the defendant holds, the court shall accept this fact as prima facie evidence that such interests form part of such a benefit.

(2) For the purposes of an enquiry under section 18 (1), if it is found that a court had ordered the defendant to disclose any facts under section 26 (7) and that the defendant had without sufficient cause failed to disclose such facts or had, after being so ordered, furnished false information, knowing such information to be false or not believing it to be true, the court shall accept these facts as prima facie evidence that any property to which the information relates—

- (a) forms part of the defendant's benefit, in determining whether he or she has derived a benefit from an offence; or
- (b) is held by the defendant as an advantage, payment, service or reward in connection with the offences or related criminal activities referred to in section 18 (1).

(3) For the purposes of determining the value of a defendant's proceeds of unlawful activities in an enquiry under section 18 (1)—

- (a) if the court finds that he or she has benefited from an offence and that—
 - (i) he or she held property at any time at, or since, his or her conviction; or
 - (ii) property was transferred to him or her at any time since the beginning of a period of seven years before the fixed date, the court shall accept these facts as prima facie evidence that the property was received by him or her at the earliest time at which he or she held it, as an advantage, payment, service or reward in connection with the offences or related criminal activities referred to in section 18 (1);

- (b) if the court finds that he or she has benefited from an offence and that expenditure had been incurred by him or her since the beginning of the period contemplated in paragraph (a), the court shall accept these facts as prima facie evidence that any such expenditure was met out of the advantages, payments, services or rewards, including any property received by him or her in connection with the offences or related criminal activities referred to in section 18 (1) committed by him or her.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 18 (c) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(4) For the purpose of determining the value of any property in an enquiry under section 18 (1), if the court finds that the defendant received property at any time as an advantage, payment, service or reward in connection with the offences or related criminal activities referred to in that subsection committed by him or her or by any other person the court shall accept this fact as prima facie evidence that he or she received that property free of any other interest therein.

23. Effect of confiscation orders.—(1) A confiscation order made—

- (a) by a magistrate's court, other than a regional court, shall have the effect of a civil judgment of that court;
- (b) by a regional court shall have the effect of a civil judgment of the magistrate's court of the district in which the relevant trial took place.

(2) Where a High Court makes a confiscation order—

- (a) the confiscation order shall have the effect of a civil judgment of that court; or
- (b) the presiding judge may direct the registrar of that court to forward a certified copy of the confiscation order to the clerk of the magistrate's court designated by the presiding judge or, if no such court is designated, to the clerk of the magistrate's court within the area of jurisdiction of which the offence concerned was committed, and, on receipt of the said copy of the confiscation order the clerk of the magistrate's court concerned shall register the confiscation order whereupon it shall have the effect of a civil judgment of that magistrate's court.

24. Procedure where person absconds or dies.—(1) If a court is satisfied that—

- (a)
 - (i) a person had been charged with an offence;
 - (ii) a person had been convicted of any offence;
 - (iii) a restraint order had been made against a person; or
 - (iv) there is sufficient evidence for putting a person on trial for an offence;
- (b) a warrant for his or her arrest had been issued and that the attendance of that person in court could not be secured after all reasonable steps were taken to execute that warrant;
- (c) the proceedings against him or her cannot be resumed within a period of six months due to his or her continued absence; and
- (d) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a confiscation order would have been made against him or her were it not for his or her continued absence, the court may, on the application by the National Director, enquire into any benefit the person may have derived from that offence.

(2) (a) Whenever a defendant who has been convicted of an offence dies before a confiscation order is made, the court may, on the application by the National Director, enquire into any benefit the person may have derived from that offence if the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a confiscation order would have been made against him or her were it not for his or her death.

(b) The executor of the estate of the deceased shall be entitled to appear before the court and make representations for purposes of the enquiry referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) The court conducting an enquiry under this section may—

- (a) if the court finds that the person referred to in subsection (1) or (2) has so benefited, make a confiscation order and the provisions of this Part shall, with the necessary changes, apply to the making of such order;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 19 (a) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

- (b) if a curator bonis has not been appointed in respect of any of the property concerned, appoint a curator bonis in respect of realisable property; and
- (c) authorise the realisation of the property concerned in terms of Part 4.

(4) A court shall not exercise its powers under subsection (3) (a) and (c) unless it has afforded all persons having any interest in the property concerned an opportunity to make representations to it in connection with the making of such orders.

(5) A court conducting an enquiry under this section shall not apply sections 21 and 22.

[Sub-s. (5) substituted by s. 19 (b) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(6) If a person, excluding a person contemplated in subsection (1) (a) (ii), against whom a confiscation order had been made under subsection (3) is subsequently tried and—

(a) convicted of one or other of the offences in respect of which the order had been made, the court convicting him or her may conduct an enquiry under section 18 and make an appropriate order;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 19 (c) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(b) acquitted of the offence in respect of which the order had been made, the court acquitting him or her may make an appropriate order.

PART 3

Restraint Orders

24A. Order to remain in force pending appeal.—A restraint order and an order authorising the seizure of the property concerned or other ancillary order which is in force at the time of any decision by the court in relation to the making of a confiscation order, shall remain in force pending the outcome of any appeal against the decision concerned.

[S. 24A inserted by s. 3 of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

25. Cases in which restraint orders may be made.—(1) A High Court may exercise the powers conferred on it by section 26 (1)—

(a) when—

(i) a prosecution for an offence has been instituted against the defendant concerned;

(ii) either a confiscation order has been made against that defendant or it appears to the court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a confiscation order may be made against that defendant; and

(iii) the proceedings against that defendant have not been concluded; or

(b) when—

(i) that court is satisfied that a person is to be charged with an offence; and

(ii) it appears to the court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a confiscation order may be made against such person.

(2) Where the High Court has made a restraint order under subsection (1) (b), that court shall rescind the restraint order if the relevant person is not charged within such period as the court may consider reasonable.

26. Restraint orders.—(1) The National Director may by way of an ex parte application apply to a competent High Court for an order prohibiting any person, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified in the order, from dealing in any manner with any property to which the order relates.

(2) A restraint order may be made—

- (a) in respect of such realisable property as may be specified in the restraint order and which is held by the person against whom the restraint order is being made;
- (b) in respect of all realisable property held by such person, whether it is specified in the restraint order or not;
- (c) in respect of all property which, if it is transferred to such person after the making of the restraint order, would be realisable property.

(3) (a) A court to which an application is made in terms of subsection (1) may make a provisional restraint order having immediate effect and may simultaneously grant a rule nisi calling upon the defendant upon a day mentioned in the rule to appear and to show cause why the restraint order should not be made final.

(b) If the defendant has been absent during a period of 21 days from his or her usual place of residence and from his or her business, if any, within the Republic, the court may direct that it shall be sufficient service of that rule if a copy thereof is affixed to or near the outer door of the buildings where the court sits and published in the Gazette, or may direct some other mode of service.

(c) Upon application by the defendant, the court may anticipate the return day for the purpose of discharging the provisional restraint order if 24 hours' notice of such application has been given to the applicant contemplated in subsection (1).

Wording of Sections

(5)

[Sub-s. (5) deleted by s. 4 (b) of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(6) Without derogating from the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), a restraint order may make such provision as the High Court may think fit—

- (a) for the reasonable living expenses of a person against whom the restraint order is being made and his or her family or household; and
- (b) for the reasonable legal expenses of such person in connection with any proceedings instituted against him or her in terms of this Chapter or any criminal proceedings to which such proceedings may relate,

if the court is satisfied that the person whose expenses must be provided for has disclosed under oath all his or her interests in property subject to a restraint order and that the person cannot meet the expenses concerned out of his or her unrestrained property.

(7) A High Court making a restraint order may also make such further order in respect of the discovery of any facts including facts relating to any property over which the defendant may have effective control and the location of such property as the court may consider necessary or expedient with a view to achieving the objects of the restraint order.

(8) A High Court making a restraint order shall at the same time make an order authorising the seizure of all movable property concerned by a police official, and any other ancillary orders that the court considers appropriate for the proper, fair and effective execution of the order.

Wording of Sections

(9) Property seized under subsection (8) shall be dealt with in accordance with the directions of the High Court which made the relevant restraint order.

[Sub-s. (9) substituted by s. 20 (b) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(10) A High Court which made a restraint order—

- (a) may on application by a person affected by that order vary or rescind the restraint order or an order authorising the seizure of the property concerned or other ancillary order if it is satisfied—
 - (i) that the operation of the order concerned will deprive the applicant of the means to provide for his or her reasonable living expenses and cause undue hardship for the applicant; and
 - (ii) that the hardship that the applicant will suffer as a result of the order outweighs the risk that the property concerned may be destroyed, lost, damaged, concealed or transferred; and
- (b) shall rescind the restraint order when the proceedings against the defendant concerned are concluded.

[Sub-s. (10) added by s. 4 (d) of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

(11) When a court orders the rescission of an order authorising the seizure of property in terms of subsection (10) (a) the court shall make such other order as it considers appropriate for the proper, fair and effective execution of the restraint order concerned.

[Sub-s. (11) added by s. 4 (d) of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

27. Seizure of property subject to restraint order.—(1) In order to prevent any realisable property from being disposed of or removed contrary to a restraint order, any police official may seize any such property if he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that such property will be so disposed of or removed.

(2) Property seized under subsection (1) shall be dealt with in accordance with the directions of the High Court which made the relevant restraint order.

28. Appointment of curator bonis in respect of property subject to restraint order.—

(1) Where a High Court has made a restraint order, that court may at any time—

- (a) appoint a curator bonis to do, subject to the directions of that court, any one or more of the following on behalf of the person against whom the restraint order has been made, namely—
 - (i) to perform any particular act in respect of any of or all the property to which the restraint order relates;
 - (ii) to take care of the said property;

- (iii) to administer the said property; and
 - (iv) where the said property is a business or undertaking, to carry on, with due regard to any law which may be applicable, the business or undertaking;
 - (b) order the person against whom the restraint order has been made to surrender forthwith, or within such period as that court may determine, any property in respect of which a curator bonis has been appointed under paragraph (a), into the custody of that curator bonis.
- (2) Any person affected by an order contemplated in subsection (1) (b) may at any time apply—
- (a) for the variation or rescission of the order; or
 - (b) for the variation of the terms of the appointment of the curator bonis concerned or for the discharge of that curator bonis.
- (3) The High Court which made an order contemplated in subsection (1) (b)—
- (a) may at any time—
 - (i) vary or rescind the order; or
 - (ii) vary the terms of the appointment of the curator bonis concerned or discharge that curator bonis;
 - (b) shall rescind the order and discharge the curator bonis concerned if the relevant restraint order is rescinded;
 - (c) may make such order relating to the fees and expenditure of the curator bonis as it deems fit, including an order for the payment of the fees of the curator bonis—
 - (i) from the confiscated proceeds if a confiscation order is made; or
 - (ii) by the State if no confiscation order is made.

29. Orders in respect of immovable property subject to restraint order.—(1) A High Court which has made a restraint order in respect of immovable property may at any time, with a view to ensuring the payment to the State—

- (a) where a confiscation order has not been made, of an amount equal to the most recent value of the immovable property; or
- (b) where a confiscation order has been made, of an amount not exceeding the amount payable under the confiscation order, order the registrar of deeds concerned to endorse any one or more of the restrictions contemplated in subsection (2) on the title deed of the immovable property.

(2) An order contemplated in subsection (1) may be made in respect of the following restrictions, namely—

- (a) that the immovable property shall not without the consent of the High Court be mortgaged or otherwise encumbered;
- (b) that the immovable property shall not without the consent of the High Court be attached or sold in execution; and
- (c) that the immovable property shall not without the consent of the High Court—
 - (i) vest in the Master of the High Court or trustee concerned, as the case may be, when the estate of the owner of that immovable property is sequestered; or

- (ii) where the owner of that immovable property is a company or other juristic person which is being wound up, form part of the assets of such company or juristic person, if the owner of that immovable property has not made the payment referred to in that subsection to the State.

(3) In order to give effect to subsection (1), the registrar of deeds concerned shall—

- (a) make the necessary entries in his or her registers and the necessary endorsement on the office copy of the title deed, and thereupon any such restriction shall be effective against all persons except, in the case of a restriction contemplated in subsection (2) (b), against any person in whose favour a mortgage bond or other charge was registered against the title deed of immovable property prior to the endorsement of the restriction on the title deed of the immovable property, but shall lapse on the transfer of ownership of the immovable property concerned;
- (b) when the original of the title deed is produced to him or her, make the necessary endorsement thereon.

(4) Unless the High Court directs otherwise, the custody of immovable property on the title deed of which a restriction contemplated in subsection (2) (c) was endorsed shall vest as from the date on which—

- (a) the estate of the owner of the immovable property is sequestered; or
- (b) where the owner of the immovable property is a company or other juristic person, such company or juristic person is being wound up, in the person in whom the said custody would have vested if such a restriction were not so endorsed.

(5) Where the High Court granted its consent in respect of a restriction contemplated in subsection (2) (c) and endorsed on the title deed of immovable property, the immovable property shall be deemed—

- (a) if the estate of the owner of the immovable property was sequestered, to have vested in the Master of the High Court or trustee concerned, as the case may be, as if such a restriction were not so endorsed; or
- (b) if the owner of the immovable property is a company or other juristic person which is being wound up, to have formed part of the assets of such company or juristic person as if such a restriction were not so endorsed.

(6) Any person affected by an order contemplated in subsection (1) may at any time apply for the rescission of the order.

(7) (a) The High Court which made an order contemplated in subsection (1)—

- (i) may at any time rescind the order; and
- (ii) shall rescind the order if the relevant restraint order is rescinded or the amount payment of which is ensured by the order has with the consent of that court been paid into court.

(b) If such order is rescinded, the High Court shall direct the registrar of deeds concerned to cancel any restriction endorsed by virtue of that order on the title deed of immovable property, and that registrar of deeds shall give effect to any such direction.

29A. Variation and rescission of certain orders suspended by appeal.—The noting of an appeal against a decision to vary or rescind any order referred to in sections 26 (10), 28 (3) and 29 (7) shall suspend such a variation or rescission pending the outcome of the appeal.

- (c) the proceedings against that defendant have not been concluded.

(2) A High Court may, on the application of the National Director—

(3) A High Court shall not exercise its powers under subsection (2) (b) unless it has afforded all persons known to have any interest in the property concerned an opportunity to make representations to it in connection with the realisation of that property.

(4) If the court referred to in subsection (2) is satisfied that a person—

- (a) is likely to be directly affected by the confiscation order; or
- (b) has suffered damage to or loss of property or injury as a result of an offence or related criminal activity referred to in section 18 (1) which was committed by the defendant, the court may allow that person to make representations in connection with the realisation of that property.

(5) If the court is satisfied that a person who has suffered damage to or loss of property or injury as a result of an offence or related criminal activity referred to in section 18 (1) which was committed by the defendant—

- (a) has instituted civil proceedings, or intends to institute such proceedings within a reasonable time; or
- (b) has obtained a judgment against the defendant, in respect of that damage, loss or injury, the court may order that the curator bonis suspend the realisation of the whole or part of the realisable property concerned for the period that the court deems fit in order to satisfy such a claim or judgment and related legal expenses and may make such ancillary orders as it deems expedient.

(6) The curator bonis shall as soon as possible after—whichever occurs first, realise the realisable property concerned as contemplated in subsection (2).

31. Application of certain sums of money.—(1) The following sums of money in the hands of a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter, namely—

- (a) the proceeds of any realisable property realised by virtue of section 30; and
- (b) any other sums of money, being property of the defendant concerned, shall, after such payment as the High Court may direct have been made out of such sums of money, be applied on that defendant's behalf in satisfaction of the confiscation order made against him or her: Provided that where the High Court may direct payment out of such sums of money, the State shall not have a preferential claim: Provided further that, if sums of money remain in the hands of the curator bonis after the amount payable under such confiscation order has been fully paid, the curator bonis shall distribute those sums of money—

- (i) among such persons who held realisable property which has been realised by virtue of section 30; and
- (ii) in such proportions, as that court may, after affording such persons an opportunity to make representations to it in connection with the distribution of those sums of money, direct.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) such payment as the High Court may direct shall, for the purposes of that subsection, include any payment in respect of an obligation which was found to have priority in terms of section 20.

32. Functions of curator bonis.—(1) Immediately after letters of curatorship have been granted to a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter, the curator bonis shall take into his or her custody all the property in respect of which he or she was appointed, as well as any book, record or other document in the possession or custody or under the control of any person referred to in section 28 (1) (b) or 30 (2) (c) which relates to the said property.

(2) Save as is otherwise provided in this Chapter, the provisions of the Administration of Estates Act, 1965 (Act No. 66 of 1965), shall with the necessary changes apply in respect of a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter.

33. Exercise of powers by High Court and curator bonis.—(1) The powers conferred upon a High Court by sections 26 to 31, or upon a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter, shall—

- (a) subject to paragraphs (b) and (c), be exercised with a view to making available the current value of realisable property for satisfying any confiscation order made or which might be made against the defendant;

- (b) in the case of realisable property held by a person to whom that defendant has directly or indirectly made an affected gift, be exercised with a view to realising not more than the current value of such gift;
- (c) be exercised with a view to allowing any person other than that defendant or the recipient of such gift to retain or recover the current value of any property held by him or her, and, except as provided in sections 20 (1) and 26 (6), any obligation of that defendant or the recipient of such gift which conflicts with the obligation to satisfy a confiscation order shall be left out of account.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not be construed as prohibiting any High Court from making any additional order in respect of a debt owed to the State.

34. Variation of confiscation orders.—(1) If the High Court is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of the balance of the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order against the defendant concerned, that court may, on the application of that defendant, issue a certificate to that effect stating the reasons for the court being so satisfied.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the High Court may—

- (a) in the case of realisable property held—
 - (i) by a person whose estate has been sequestrated, take into account the extent to which the proceeds of property in that estate may be distributed among the creditors; or
 - (ii) by a company or other juristic person which is being wound up, take into account the extent to which the assets of such company or juristic person may be distributed among the creditors;
- (b) leave out of account any inadequacy in the realisable property which is in the opinion of that court wholly or partly attributable to anything done by the defendant for the purpose of preserving any property held by a person to whom the defendant had directly or indirectly made an affected gift from the risk of any realisation in terms of this Chapter.

(3) (a) If a certificate referred to in subsection (1) has been issued, the defendant may apply to the court which made the confiscation order against him or her for the reduction of the amount to be recovered under that confiscation order.

(b) Such court or, if the judge or judicial officer concerned is not available, any judge or judicial officer of that court may substitute for the amount to be recovered under such confiscation order such lesser amount as that court may consider just in the circumstances of the case.

35. Effect of sequestration of estates on realisable property.—(1) When the estate of a person who holds realisable property is sequestrated—

- (a) the property for the time being subject to a restraint order made before the date of sequestration; and
- (b) the proceeds of any realisable property realised by virtue of section 30 and for the time being in the hands of a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter, shall not vest in the Master of the High Court or trustee concerned, as the case may be.

(2) When the estate of a defendant who has directly or indirectly made an affected gift to any other person is sequestrated—

- (a) no court shall set aside the disposition of such gift under section 29, 30 or 31 of the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936)—
 - (i) if a prosecution for an offence has been instituted against the defendant and the proceedings against him or her have not been concluded; or
 - (ii) if the property of such other person is subject to a restraint order;
- [Para. (a) amended by s. 22 of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

- (b) any court which sets aside any disposition contemplated in paragraph (a) after the conclusion of the proceedings against the defendant, shall take into account any realisation of the property of such other person in terms of this Chapter.

(3) Where the estate of an insolvent has been sequestrated, the powers conferred upon a High Court by sections 26 to 31 and 33 (2) or upon a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter, shall not be exercised—

- (a) in respect of any property which forms part of that estate; or
- (b) in respect of any property which the trustee concerned is entitled to claim from the insolvent under section 23 of the Insolvency Act, 1936.

(4) Nothing in the Insolvency Act, 1936, shall be construed as prohibiting any High Court or curator bonis appointed under this Chapter from exercising any power contemplated in subsection (3) in respect of any property or proceeds mentioned in subsection (1).

36. Effect of winding-up of companies or other juristic persons on realisable property.—(1) When any competent court has made an order for the winding-up of any company or other juristic person which holds realisable property or a resolution for the voluntary winding-up of any such company or juristic person has been registered in terms of any applicable law—

- (a) no property for the time being subject to a restraint order made before the relevant time; and
- (b) no proceeds of any realisable property realised by virtue of section 30 and for the time being in the hands of a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter, shall form part of the assets of any such company or juristic person.

(2) Where an order mentioned in subsection (1) has been made in respect of a company or other juristic person or a resolution mentioned in that subsection has been registered in respect of such company or juristic person, the powers conferred upon a High Court by sections 26 to 31 and 33 (2) or upon a curator bonis appointed under this Chapter, shall not be exercised in respect of any property which forms part of the assets of such company or juristic person.

Wording of Sections

(3) Nothing in the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973), or any other law relating to juristic persons in general or any particular juristic person, shall be construed as prohibiting any High Court or curator bonis appointed under this Chapter from exercising any power contemplated in subsection (2) in respect of any property or proceeds mentioned in subsection (1).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (1), “the relevant time” means—

- (a) where an order for the winding-up of the company or juristic person, as the case may be, has been made, the time of the presentation to the court concerned of the application for the winding-up; or
- (b) where no such order has been made, the time of the registration of the resolution authorising the voluntary winding-up of the company or juristic person, as the case may be.

(5) The provisions of section 35 (2) are with the necessary changes applicable to a company or juristic person who has directly or indirectly made an affected gift.

CHAPTER 6 CIVIL RECOVERY OF PROPERTY

PART 1 Introduction

37. Proceedings are civil, not criminal.—(1) For the purposes of this Chapter all proceedings under this Chapter are civil proceedings, and are not criminal proceedings.

(2) The rules of evidence applicable in civil proceedings apply to proceedings under this Chapter.

(3) No rule of evidence applicable only in criminal proceedings shall apply to proceedings under this Chapter.

(4) No rule of construction applicable only in criminal proceedings shall apply to proceedings under this Chapter.

PART 2 Preservation of Property

38. Preservation of property orders.—(1) The National Director may by way of an ex parte application apply to a High Court for an order prohibiting any person, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified in the order, from dealing in any manner with any property.

(2) The High Court shall make an order referred to in subsection (1) if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the property concerned—

- (a) is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1; or
- (b) is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

(3) A High Court making a preservation of property order shall at the same time make an order authorising the seizure of the property concerned by a police official, and any other ancillary orders that the court considers appropriate for the proper, fair and effective execution of the order.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 6 of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(4) Property seized under subsection (3) shall be dealt with in accordance with the directions of the High Court which made the relevant preservation of property order.

39. Notice of preservation of property orders.—(1) If a High Court makes a preservation of property order, the National Director shall, as soon as practicable after the making of the order—

- (a) give notice of the order to all persons known to the National Director to have an interest in property which is subject to the order; and
- (b) publish a notice of the order in the Gazette.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) (a) shall be served in the manner in which a summons whereby civil proceedings in the High Court are commenced, is served.

(3) Any person who has an interest in the property which is subject to the preservation of property order may enter an appearance giving notice of his or her intention to oppose the making of a forfeiture order or to apply for an order excluding his or her interest in the property concerned from the operation thereof.

(4) An appearance under subsection (3) shall be delivered to the National Director within, in the case of—

- (a) a person upon whom a notice has been served under subsection (1) (a), 14 days after such service; or
- (b) any other person, 14 days after the date upon which a notice under subsection (1) (b) was published in the Gazette.

(5) An appearance under subsection (3) shall contain full particulars of the chosen address for the delivery of documents concerning further proceedings under this Chapter and shall be accompanied by an affidavit stating—

- (a) full particulars of the identity of the person entering the appearance;
- (b) the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned; and
- (c) the basis of the defence upon which he or she intends to rely in opposing a forfeiture order or applying for the exclusion of his or her interests from the operation thereof.

40. Duration of preservation of property orders.—A preservation of property order shall expire 90 days after the date on which notice of the making of the order is published in the Gazette unless—

- (a) there is an application for a forfeiture order pending before the High Court in respect of the property, subject to the preservation of property order;
- (b) there is an unsatisfied forfeiture order in force in relation to the property subject to the preservation of property order; or
- (c) the order is rescinded before the expiry of that period.

41. Seizure of property subject to preservation of property order.—(1) In order to prevent property subject to a preservation of property order from being disposed of or removed contrary to that order, any police official may seize any such property if he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that such property will be so disposed of or removed.

(2) Property seized under subsection (1) shall be dealt with in accordance with the directions of the High Court which made the relevant preservation of property order.

42. Appointment of curator bonis in respect of property subject to preservation of property order.—(1) Where a High Court has made a preservation of property order, the High Court shall, if it deems it appropriate, at the time of the making of the order or at a later time—

- (a) appoint a curator bonis to do, subject to the directions of that High Court, any one or more of the following on behalf of the person against whom the preservation of property order has been made, namely—
 - (i) to assume control over the property;
 - (ii) to take care of the said property;
 - (iii) to administer the said property and to do any act necessary for that purpose; and
 - (iv) where the said property is a business or undertaking, to carry on, with due regard to any law which may be applicable, the business or undertaking; and
- (b) order any person holding property subject to the preservation of property order to surrender forthwith, or within such period as that Court may determine, any such property into the custody of the curator bonis.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 7 of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(2) The High Court which made an order under subsection (1) may make such order relating to the fees and expenditure of the curator bonis as it deems fit, including an order for the payment of the fees of the curator bonis—

- (a) from the forfeited property if a forfeiture order is made; or
- (b) by the State if no forfeiture order is made.

43. Orders in respect of immovable property subject to preservation of property order.—(1) A High Court which has made a preservation of property order in respect of immovable property may at any time, with a view to ensuring the effective execution of a subsequent order, order the registrar of deeds concerned to endorse any one or more of the restrictions referred to in subsection (2) on the title deed of the immovable property.

(2) An order under subsection (1) may be made in respect of the following restrictions, namely—

- (a) that the immovable property shall not without the consent of the High Court be mortgaged or otherwise encumbered;
- (b) that the immovable property shall not without the consent of the High Court be attached or sold in execution; and
- (c) that the immovable property shall not without the consent of the High Court—
 - (i) vest in the Master of the High Court or trustee concerned, as the case may be, when the estate of the owner of that immovable property is sequestered; or
 - (ii) where the owner of that immovable property is a company or other corporate body which is being wound up, form part of the assets of such company or corporate body.

(3) In order to give effect to subsection (1), the registrar of deeds concerned shall—

- (a) make the necessary entries in his or her registers and the necessary endorsement on the office copy of the title deed, and thereupon any such restriction shall be effective against all persons except, in the case of a restriction contemplated in subsection (2) (b), against any person in whose favour a mortgage bond or other charge was registered against the title deed of immovable property prior to the endorsement of the restriction on the title deed of the immovable property, but shall lapse on the transfer of ownership of the immovable property concerned;
- (b) when the original of the title deed is produced to him or her, make the necessary endorsement thereon.

(4) Unless the High Court directs otherwise, the custody of immovable property on the title deed of which a restriction contemplated in subsection (2) (c) was endorsed shall vest as from the date on which—

- (a) the estate of the owner of the immovable property is sequestrated; or
- (b) where the owner of the immovable property is a company or other corporate body, such company or corporate body is being wound up, in the person in whom the said custody would have vested if such a restriction were not so endorsed.

(5) Where the High Court granted its consent in respect of a restriction contemplated in subsection (2) (c) and endorsed on the title deed of immovable property, the immovable property shall be deemed—

- (a) if the estate of the owner of the immovable property was sequestrated, to have vested in the Master of the High Court or trustee concerned, as the case may be, as if such a restriction were not so endorsed; or
- (b) if the owner of the immovable property is a company or other juristic person which is being wound up, to have formed part of the assets of such company or juristic person as if such a restriction were not so endorsed.

(6) Any person affected by an order contemplated in subsection (1) may at any time apply for the rescission of the order.

44. Provision for expenses.—(1) A preservation of property order may make provision as the High Court deems fit for—

- (a) reasonable living expenses of a person holding an interest in property subject to a preservation of property order and his or her family or household; and
- (b) reasonable legal expenses of such a person in connection with any proceedings instituted against him or her in terms of this Act or any other related criminal proceedings.

(2) A High Court shall not make provision for any expenses under subsection (1) unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) the person cannot meet the expenses concerned out of his or her property which is not subject to the preservation of property order; and

- (b) the person has disclosed under oath all his or her interests in the property and has submitted to that Court a sworn and full statement of all his or her assets and liabilities.

45. Maximum legal expenses that can be met from preserved property.—(1) Despite provision in a preservation of property order for the meeting of legal expenses out of any property to which the order applies, a legal expense is not to be met out of that property to the extent that the amount payable for any legal service concerned exceeds any prescribed maximum allowable cost for that service.

(2) This section operates only to limit the amount of the legal expenses that a High Court may provide for under section 44 to be met out of property that is subject to a preservation of property order and does not limit or otherwise affect any entitlement of a legal practitioner to be paid or to recover for a legal service any amount that exceeds any applicable maximum.

46. Taxation of legal expenses.—(1) If a High Court granting a preservation of property order makes provision for a person's reasonable legal expenses—

- (a) the National Director; or
- (b) the curator bonis, may apply to the High Court for an order under this section.

(2) The curator bonis or the National Director must give notice of an application under this section to the person concerned.

(3) On an application under this section, the High Court must order that the expenses be taxed as provided in the order.

(4) After an application is made for an order under this section, the curator bonis need not, unless ordered by the Court to do so, take any steps for the purpose of meeting the expenses as provided by the preservation of property order unless and until—

- (a) an order under this section in relation to the expenses is complied with; or
- (b) the application, and any appeal arising out of it, are finally determined, or otherwise disposed of, other than by the making of such an order.

47. Variation and rescission of orders.—(1) A High Court which made a preservation of property order—

- (a) may on application by a person affected by that order vary or rescind the preservation of property order or an order authorising the seizure of the property concerned or other ancillary order if it is satisfied—
 - (i) that the operation of the order concerned will deprive the applicant of the means to provide for his or her reasonable living expenses and cause undue hardship for the applicant; and
 - (ii) that the hardship that the applicant will suffer as result of the order outweighs the risk that the property concerned may be destroyed, lost, damaged, concealed or transferred; and
- (b) shall rescind the preservation of property order when the proceedings against the defendant concerned are concluded.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 8 (a) of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(1A) When a court orders the rescission of an order authorising the seizure of property under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) the court shall make such other order as it considers appropriate for the proper, fair and effective execution of the preservation of property order concerned.

[Sub-s. (1A) inserted by s. 8 (b) of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

(2) (a) Any person affected by an order for the appointment of a curator bonis may at any time apply—

- (i) for the variation or rescission of the order;
- (ii) for the variation of the terms of the appointment of the curator bonis concerned;
or
- (iii) for the discharge of the curator bonis.

(b) A High Court which made an order for the appointment of a curator bonis—

- (i) may, if it deems it necessary in the interests of justice, at any time—
 - (aa) vary or rescind the order;
 - (bb) vary the terms of the appointment of the curator bonis concerned; or
 - (cc) discharge that curator bonis;
- (ii) shall rescind the order and discharge the curator bonis concerned if the relevant preservation of property order is rescinded.

(3) (a) Any person affected by an order in respect of immovable property may at any time apply for the rescission of the order.

(b) A High Court which made an order in respect of immovable property—

- (i) may, if it deems it necessary in the interests of justice, at any time rescind the order; or
- (ii) shall rescind the order if the relevant preservation of property order is rescinded.

(c) If an order in respect of immovable property is rescinded, the High Court shall direct the registrar of deeds concerned to cancel any restriction endorsed by virtue of that order on the title deed of immovable property, and that registrar of deeds shall give effect to any such direction.

(4) The noting of an appeal against a decision to vary or rescind any order referred to in this section shall suspend such a variation or rescission pending the outcome of the appeal.

[Sub-s. (4) added by s. 8 (c) of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

PART 3

Forfeiture of Property

48. Application for forfeiture order.—(1) If a preservation of property order is in force the National Director may apply to a High Court for an order forfeiting to the State all or any of the property that is subject to the preservation of property order.

(2) The National Director shall give 14 days notice of an application under subsection (1) to every person who entered an appearance in terms of section 39 (3).

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 26 of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(3) A notice under subsection (2) shall be served in the manner in which a summons whereby civil proceedings in the High Court are commenced, is served.

(4) Any person who entered an appearance in terms of section 39 (3) may appear at the application under subsection (1)—

(a) to oppose the making of the order; or

(b) to apply for an order—

(i) excluding his or her interest in that property from the operation of the order;
or

(ii) varying the operation of the order in respect of that property, and may adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

49. Late entry of appearance.—(1) Any person who, for any reason, did not enter an appearance in terms of section 39 (3) may, within 14 days of him or her becoming aware of the existence of a preservation of property order, apply to the High Court for leave to enter such an appearance.

(2) An application in terms of subsection (1) may be made before or after the date on which an application for a forfeiture order is made under section 48 (1), but shall be made before judgment is given in respect of such an application for a forfeiture order.

(3) The High Court may grant an applicant referred to in subsection (1) leave to enter an appearance in terms of section 39 (3) within the period which the Court deems appropriate, if the Court is satisfied on good cause shown that such applicant—

(a) has for sufficient reason failed to enter an appearance in terms of section 39 (3);
and

(b) has an interest in the property which is subject to the preservation of property order.

(4) When a High Court grants an applicant leave to enter an appearance, the Court—

(a) shall make any order as to costs against the applicant; and

(b) may make any order to regulate the further participation of the applicant in proceedings concerning an application for a forfeiture order, which it deems appropriate.

(5) An appearance entered after leave has been obtained under this section shall contain full particulars of the chosen address of the person who enters such appearance for the delivery of documents concerning further proceedings under this Chapter and shall be accompanied by an affidavit referred to in section 39 (5).

50. Making of forfeiture order.—(1) The High Court shall, subject to section 52, make an order applied for under section 48 (1) if the Court finds on a balance of probabilities that the property concerned—

(a) is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1; or

(b) is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

(2) The High Court may, when it makes a forfeiture order or at any time thereafter, make any ancillary orders that it considers appropriate, including orders for and with respect to facilitating the transfer to the State of property forfeited to the State under such an order.

(3) The absence of a person whose interest in property may be affected by a forfeiture order does not prevent the High Court from making the order.

(4) The validity of an order under subsection (1) is not affected by the outcome of criminal proceedings, or of an investigation with a view to institute such proceedings, in respect of an offence with which the property concerned is in some way associated.

(5) The Registrar of the Court making a forfeiture order must publish a notice thereof in the Gazette as soon as practicable after the order is made.

(6) A forfeiture order shall not take effect—

(a) before the period allowed for an application under section 54 or an appeal under section 55 has expired; or

(b) before such an application or appeal has been disposed of.

51. Notice of reasonable grounds that property is concerned in commission of offence.—(1) The National Director may apply to a judge in chambers or a magistrate for an order notifying a person having an interest in or control over property that there are reasonable grounds to believe that such property is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1.

(2) The judge or magistrate shall make an order referred to in subsection (1) if the judge or magistrate is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1.

(3) When a judge or magistrate makes an order under subsection (1), the registrar of the High Court concerned or clerk of the Magistrate's Court for the district concerned shall issue a notice in the prescribed form to the person referred to in the order, informing him or her that there are reasonable grounds to believe that property in which he or she has an interest or over which he or she has control, is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1.

(4) A notice issued under subsection (3) shall be served on the person concerned in the manner in which a summons whereby civil proceedings in the High Court are commenced is served.

52. Exclusion of interests in property.—(1) The High Court may, on application—

(a) under section 48 (3); or

(b) by a person referred to in section 49 (1),

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 29 (a) of Act No. 24 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

and when it makes a forfeiture order, make an order excluding certain interests in property which is subject to the order, from the operation thereof.

(2) The High Court may make an order under subsection (1), in relation to the forfeiture of the proceeds of unlawful activities, if it finds on a balance of probabilities that the applicant for the order—

(a) had acquired the interest concerned legally and for a consideration, the value of which is not significantly less than the value of that interest; and

- (b) where the applicant had acquired the interest concerned after the commencement of this Act, that he or she neither knew nor had reasonable grounds to suspect that the property in which the interest is held is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 9 of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

Wording of Sections

(2A) The High Court may make an order under subsection (1), in relation to the forfeiture of an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1, if it finds on a balance of probabilities that the applicant for the order had acquired the interest concerned legally, and—

- (a) neither knew nor had reasonable grounds to suspect that the property in which the interest is held is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1; or
- (b) where the offence concerned had occurred before the commencement of this Act, the applicant has since the commencement of this Act taken all reasonable steps to prevent the use of the property concerned as an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1.

[Sub-s. (2A) inserted by s. 9 of Act No. 38 of 1999.]

(3) (a) If an applicant for an order under subsection (1) adduces evidence to show that he or she did not know or did not have reasonable grounds to suspect that the property in which the interest is held, is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1, the State may submit a return of the service on the applicant of a notice issued under section 51 (3) in rebuttal of that evidence in respect of the period since the date of such service.

(b) If the State submits a return of the service on the applicant of a notice issued under section 51 (3) as contemplated in paragraph (a), the applicant for an order under subsection (1) must, in addition to the facts referred to in subsection (2) (a) and (2) (b) (i), also prove on a balance of probabilities that, since such service, he or she has taken all reasonable steps to prevent the further use of the property concerned as an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1.

(4) A High Court making an order for the exclusion of an interest in property under subsection (1) may, in the interest of the administration of justice or in the public interest, make that order upon the conditions that the Court deems appropriate including a condition requiring the person who applied for the exclusion to take all reasonable steps, within a period that the Court may determine, to prevent the future use of the property as an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1.

53. Forfeiture order by default.—(1) If the National Director applies for a forfeiture order by default and the High Court is satisfied that no person has appeared on the date upon which an application under section 48 (1) is to be heard and, on the grounds of sufficient proof or otherwise, that all persons who entered appearances in terms of section 39 (3) have knowledge of notices given under section 48 (2), the Court may—

- (a) make any order by default which the Court could have made under sections 50 (1) and (2);
- (b) make such order as the Court may consider appropriate in the circumstances; or
- (c) make no order.

(2) The High Court may, before making an order in terms of subsection (1), call upon the National Director to adduce such further evidence, either in writing or orally, in support of his or her application as the Court may consider necessary.

(3) Any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the forfeiture order or other order made by the Court under subsection (1) may, within 20 days after he or she has acquired knowledge of such order or direction, set the matter down for variation or rescission by the court.

(4) The court may, upon good cause shown, vary or rescind the default order or give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.

54. Exclusion of interests in forfeited property.—(1) Any person affected by a forfeiture order who was entitled to receive notice of the application for the order under section 48 (2), but did not receive such notice, may, within 45 days after the notice of the making thereof is published in the Gazette, apply for an order excluding his or her interest in the property concerned from the operation of the order, or varying the operation of the order in respect of such property.

(2) The application shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth—

- (a) the nature and extent of the applicant's right, title or interest in the property concerned;

58. Offence may form the basis of multiple orders.—The fact that a preservation of property order or a forfeiture order has been made on the basis of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 in which a specific person has been involved does not prevent the making of another or other preservation of property orders or forfeiture orders on the basis of the same offence.

59. Application of Chapter to deceased estates.—(1) Any notice authorised or required to be given to a person under this Chapter is, in the case of a deceased person, sufficiently given to the executor of that person's estate.
